Management, Marketing and Promotion of Library Services Based on Statistics, Analyses and Evaluation

Edited by
Trine Kolderup Flaten
Contents

Taking A Measured Approach to Library Management: Performance Evidence Applications and Culture
J. Eric Davies, UK ................................................................. 17

Statistics and Strategy: Statistics and Performance Measurements as a Social Process
Ulla Wimmer, Germany ............................................................ 33

Comparing libraries: from official statistics to effective strategies
Tord Høvik, Norway ............................................................. 43

Cyberspace and market place: library messages beyond the border
Myoung C.Wilson and Farideh Tehrani, USA .............................. 65

Quality Standards
Louise Guillemette-Labory and Pierre Meunier, Canada ................... 80

Using Customer Data for Improved Strategic Marketing Planning and Decisionmaking
Christie Koontz, USA ............................................................. 107

Library Statistics without Fear
Ellen Maleszewski and Michael Bailow Huang, USA ........................ 116

Statistics To Plan: Statistical Development in a Regional System of Public Libraries (Valencian Community – Spain)
Ignazio Latorre Zacarés and Milagros Ortells Montón, Spain ................ 138

Development of Estonian public libraries during the last decade. (1994-2004)
Margit Jögi, Estonia ............................................................. 153

Audit for libraries... which one ?
Marielle de Miribel, France ..................................................... 161
Coordination of higher educational institutions and professional library associations – the key to training quality rise of librarians of XXI century
Natalia Gendina, Russia ........................................................................................................... 169

La bibliothèque municipale face aux fluctuations financières : l'impensé managérial dans les bibliothèques municipales des villes moyennes
Liman Latifa, France ............................................................................................................. 179

Evaluation of libraries: Experiences from applying a method for non-market valuation developed in economics
Svanhild Aabø, Norway ........................................................................................................ 199

Customers Value Research
Sue McKnight, UK ................................................................................................................ 206

Management and marketing in the Library and Documentation Centre of Artium Basque Centre-Museum of Contemporary Art
Elena Roseras Carcedo, Spain .............................................................................................. 217

Marketing to Diverse Populations
Kathleen Imhoff, USA .......................................................................................................... 236

Getting help and doing research: what do patrons want?
An exploratory study comparing desk users with virtual reference users
Diane Granfield, Canada ....................................................................................................... 246

Marketing library services.
A case study at University of Illinois at Urbana – Champaign USA
Yoo-Seong Song, USA ......................................................................................................... 257

The library as a part of cultural behavior: Summary of a large scale survey to identify user trends and reading behavior in Flanders libraries
Bart Vercruysse, Belgium .................................................................................................... 267

Evaluating library services – best practice initiatives in Australian university libraries
Helen King, Australia ........................................................................................................... 283

The public library's attractiveness: A quantitative study
Claude Poissenot, France .................................................................................................... 300

The use of Electronic Information Services and information literacy: a Glasgow Caledonian University study
John Crawford, UK, Scotland ............................................................................................ 317
Statistical indicators on reading and literacy for the "Information Society" versus the ITU's "technisist" indices
Ksibi Ahmed, Tunisia ................................................................. 342

Parameters and indicators for providers of electronic publications evaluation
Maria Luisa Alvite Diez and Blanca Rodriguez Bravo, Spain .................... 357

Promoting Library Services, Designing Marketing Strategies,
Evaluating our Past and our Present, Feeling more
Optimistic about our Libraries Future
Antonia Arahova and Sarantos Kapidakis, Greece ...................................... 369

A new model for public library and information services evaluation: and integrated approach – SIADAP+β
Leonor Gaspar Pinto and Paula Ochôa, Portugal ....................................... 388

Developing a culture of evidence based practice within the library and information profession: the impact of library science education.
A teaching and learning model from the Queensland University of Technology
Gillian Hallam and Helen Partridge, Australia .............................................. 406

Measuring and Mapping the Invisible: Alternative procedures to understand users' approaches to information in a university library
Gildas Illien, France .................................................................................... 434

Libraries Building Communities: the vital contribution of Victoria’s public libraries – A report on a major research project of the Library Board of Victoria and the Victorian public library network
Debra Rosenfeldt, Australia ........................................................................ 451