Some 12 major publishers will be represented and copies of their latest books will be on display as well as their 'key' titles that could interest CERN.

The major topics covered will be computing, physics, technology, mathematics, engineering and popular science.

Invited to this event: