1.10- I am married/in a registered partnership and I have a child - are they covered by the CHIS?

Yes, they are. Please note that on arrival, you will be required to fill in a declaration of your family situation in which you must specify whether your spouse/partner benefits from any health insurance coverage and/or receives any income deriving from a professional activity. Depending on the situation, you may be asked to pay a supplementary contribution.

2. MY FAMILY

2.1- I will be getting married/entering a registered partnership in the coming months - what should I do?

- If the marriage/partnership is before your contract starts:
  You should upload a scan of the marriage/partnership certificate to your eRT profile "My Profile", "My CV and Documents".

- If the child is born before your contract starts:

3. COMING TO CERN

3.1- How can I find accommodation in the CERN area?

You can search for an apartment or house through (see below “List of useful Websites”):

- CERN; via the CERN Housing Service and via the CERN Market
- the local estate agencies
- the local newspapers

You can choose to live in France or Switzerland

The final decision is a matter of personal choice, taking into account family status, financial circumstances and lifestyle preferences.

Geneva is an urban district where public transport is highly developed, whereas nearby France is mainly countryside situated between the Swiss border and the foothills of the Jura Mountains, interspersed with a number of small towns. When living outside Geneva, it is advisable to own a private car.

In case you have not managed to find accommodation before coming to CERN, you can make reservations (at your own expense) in the CERN hostel.

Please note that reservations are accepted 1 month in advance.

3.2- Do I need to obtain a visa before joining CERN?

Nationals of the European Union and the European Economic Space do not need a visa.

If you need a visa a dedicated service will inform you of the formalities to undertake.

3.3- Do I need a work permit to join CERN?

You don’t need a work permit. On arrival, CERN will explain the formalities to be completed to receive the necessary documents delivered by the Swiss and French authorities.

If you already hold a Swiss B or C permit, you will have to exchange it for a special residence permit (legitimation card) delivered by the Swiss Department of Foreign Affairs.

This obligation also applies to any member of your family, except those who are EU/EFTA nationals. At the end of your functions at CERN, if you keep your residence in Switzerland, you (and your family) will need to re-apply for a new B or C permit.

However, the duration of your stay in Switzerland as a CERN member of personnel will not be taken into consideration, for example to obtain a C permit.

3.4- Do I need to undergo a medical visit before joining CERN?

This is not necessary. The CERN medical service will contact you soon after your arrival to arrange an appointment.
3.5- What should I do on my first working day?

Contracts start normally on the first calendar day of a month. Should your contract starting date fall on a Saturday or Sunday, or public holiday, your first working day will be the first working day thereafter.

You should first report to The Globe (opposite the reception building 33) at 8.30 am where the entrance formalities will be explained to you.
You will receive a list of things to do and places to go to including instructions to open a Swiss bank account.
You will be invited to an induction session held in the morning; this is a chance for you to obtain useful information and meet the newly appointed Fellows and Staff Members.

3.6- How do I claim reimbursement of my travel expenses and payment of the installation indemnity?

If you are entitled to the payment of your travel expenses, the reimbursement will be on the basis of the cost of a ticket on the least expensive form of public transport (plane or train). You will be asked to provide the tickets used.

If you travel by car you don’t have to show anything and you may claim reimbursement on arrival (equivalent to the cost of a ticket on the least expensive form of public transport).
Please note that, in some cases, a return ticket is cheaper than a one way ticket. In this case (only), you should buy a return ticket. In any case, before purchasing a return ticket, please contact your coordinator.

If you are entitled to travel expenses, you are also entitled to an Installation indemnity which is a one-time payment when you arrive to help you settle into the local area (eg for a deposit on an apartment). After your contract starts, you will receive an email with a link to the document with your installation payment. It details the calculation and conditions for the payment. No advance payment is possible.

Please note that you MUST relocate to the local area (i.e. within a 50km radius of CERN to be eligible for travel and installation payments).

3.7- Does CERN reimburse luggage costs?

The Organization will reimburse luggage expenses up to a maximum of 30 kg by CARGO air freight for the journey from the airport from which you leave to the airport to which you travel to take up your appointment. CERN will also reimburse the luggage expenses of members of the family up to a maximum of 30 kg per person.

To obtain this reimbursement, the member of the personnel must submit a receipted invoice from the CARGO service of a passenger transport or freight airline company (e.g. Swiss World Cargo in the case of Swiss International Airlines).

The invoice must show the following information:
- the number of kilos of luggage transported by the carrier;
- the departure and arrival airports,
- any costs arising from import/export formalities and customs duties, and details of any additional services invoiced (e.g. special insurance, etc.).

CERN will reimburse only the cost of air freight. It will therefore not reimburse:
- the cost of delivery (from or to the place of residence) or packaging;
- any costs arising from import/export formalities and customs duties, or
- any additional service.

NB : Any excess luggage recorded at the time of check-in is NOT considered to be air freight. Consequently, the member of personnel will not be reimbursed for any excess baggage surcharge by an airline company.

3.8- I’d like to follow a French course during my Fellowship – what should I do?

If you would like to follow French courses, please discuss this with your supervisor after starting your Fellowship ideally during the Induction interview that you have with him/her at the beginning of your Fellowship. All training needs should be discussed with your supervisor before you make a request.

CERN provides an extensive in-house training programme. Information on training opportunities and how to enroll will be explained to you during the Induction session on your first day.

4. MY HOLIDAYS AND SOCIAL LIFE

4.1- Is there a calendar of official holidays?
