Frozen-shower simulation of electromagnetic showers in the ATLAS forward calorimeter

- Frozen Showers is a fast simulation technique for FCAL. Showers of electromagnetic particles are frozen and stored in a binned library for use at simulation time.
- There is an automatic procedure for finding optimal library binning.

Poster by Ksenia Gasnikova and Alexander Glazov